1.2 What is a project?

What is a project?

What is a project?

- A temporary endeavor undertaken to create a unique product or service (PMBOK, 2021)
- A project is a series of structured tasks, activities, and deliverables that are carefully executed to achieve a desired outcome. They are temporary efforts to create value through unique products, services and processes. (PMI, www.pmi.org)
- A unique set of coordinated activities, with definite starting and finishing points, undertaken by an individual or organization to meet specific performance objectives within a defined schedule, cost, and performance parameters (BS 6079:2021)

What is a project?

- Any activity with a pre-defined objective
- Any activity with a start and a finish

- Any others?

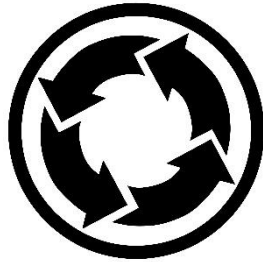

What is a project?

- Projects are temporary processes
- Projects have constraints
- Projects are focused activities: goals and objectives
- Temporary does not mean duration is short
- Temporary does not apply to the product / service (ie. Building: project can last 1 year but building lasts 100 years)

- Outcomes:
 - A product: a component of another item, an enhancement of an item, or an end item itself
 - A service
 - An improvement in the existing product or service lines
 - A result, such as an outcome or document

What is NOT a project?

Ongoing works that are always the same and repeated day after day.

Manufacturing processes; Maintenance; Going out for your regular sales meeting with your Advertiser Client, with whom you have been doing business for the last 10 years, etc. These are not projects.
